

Imagine you're in your IELTS Speaking exam and the examiner asks you the questions below. Don't worry about not knowing how to answer them. I will teach you how to do so during the Speaking portion of my classes. For now, just answer the questions below the best you can.

I want you to WRITE YOUR ANSWER in the box below each question. Of course during the exam you will need to speak, not write. However, for this homework, just WRITE your answers below.

Part 1

Do you work or are you a student?

What do you like about your work/studies?

What do you dislike about your work/studies?

Part 2

In part 2 of the speaking exam, you get a card with a question like this:

Describe someone who has had an important influence on your life.

You should say:

- Who the person is
- How long you have known him/her
- What qualities this person has

And explain why this person has had such an influence on you.

You will be given a piece of paper and a pencil to write notes for 1 minute. Then you will have to speak for 1-2 minutes.

So right now, give yourself about one minute to write down some notes. After the one minute is over, I want you to write your answer below. Write about 12-15 sentences:

Part 3

Continue to write down your answer to these questions in the box below the question:

What types of people are influential in your country?

Do you think it is important for young people to have a good role model?

What are the disadvantages of being famous?
